

Don't miss this opportunity to associate your brand with the first face-to-face meeting since 2019 by supporting the 2023 joint Symposium of the Canadian Society for Pharmaceutical Sciences (CSPS) and the Canadian Chapter of Controlled Release Society (CC-CRS).

The Symposium offers a unique opportunity for your organization to foster a strong engagement with the key opinion leaders from the pharmaceutical sciences community. Attendees will include: clinicians, regulators, pharmaceutical executives, scientists, academia, researchers, and trainees. We are expecting over 200 participants both nationally and internationally.
