

Tenure Track Faculty Position -- Social and Administrative Sciences

University of Alberta

PHAR Pharmacy & Pharm Sci

Competition No. - A105549120

Closing Date - Will remain open until filled.

The Faculty of Pharmacy and Pharmaceutical Sciences is seeking outstanding scholars for a full-time tenure-track position in the area of social and administrative sciences.

We welcome applications from all qualified persons. We encourage First Nations, Metis, and Inuit persons; members of visible minority groups; persons with disabilities; persons of any sexual orientation or gender identity and expression; and all those who may contribute to the further diversification of ideas and the University to apply.

Working for the Faculty:

The Faculty of Pharmacy and Pharmaceutical Sciences is consistently ranked among the top three schools in Canada, and top 50 globally and has been the only pharmacy school in Alberta since 1914. The province of Alberta offers the most unique pharmacy practice environment in North America where pharmacists can prescribe medications, order laboratory tests, provide injections, and receive remuneration for patient care services. Excellent opportunities exist for collaborative research with other disciplines within the Faculty, College of Health Sciences and University as well as outside the University.

Position:

Situated on Treaty 6 territory, the Faculty of Pharmacy and Pharmaceutical Sciences invites applications for a tenure-track appointment at the rank of Assistant, Associate or full Professor. The successful candidate will demonstrate a commitment to academic excellence, participate in curriculum development and innovation, conduct research and scholarly activities within their area of expertise, as well as contribute to advancing equity, diversity, and inclusivity at the university. Candidates must demonstrate excellent written and oral communication and interpersonal skills.

Key Responsibilities:

- Teaching (standard allocation of time is 40%). Participate in teaching in undergraduate and graduate programs, mentorship and supervision of undergraduate and graduate students.
- Research (standard allocation of time is 40%). Lead a program of research, participate in multidisciplinary and collaborative research, attract external funding and disseminate results.
- Service (standard allocation of time is 20%). Participate in service to the Faculty, University and community including the profession.

Qualifications:

- Applicants must hold a PhD (or advanced training in a social, administrative or health outcome research such as a post-PharmD fellowship or MSc/MPH degree).
- Evidence of an identified research focus in at least one of the following areas: social pharmacy, health policy or health services research, health equity research, public health, patient safety or pharmacy practice research.
- Commitment to teaching excellence and supervision of undergraduate and graduate students.

Application Process:

Qualified candidates are invited to apply online by clicking the link below. Applications should include a letter of interest, curriculum vitae, a statement of research plans, and statement of teaching philosophy and interests. Applications are submitted online via the University of Alberta Careers website:

<https://www.careers.ualberta.ca/>

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority.

To assist the University in complying with mandatory reporting requirements of the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act (R203(3) (e)), please include the first digit of your Canadian Social Insurance Number in your application. If you do not have a Canadian Social Insurance Number, please indicate this in your application.

If you have questions about this position, please contact Dr. Nese Yuksel at <mailto:nyuksel@ualberta.ca>

Note: Online applications are accepted until midnight Mountain Standard Time of the closing date.

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority. If suitable Canadian citizens or permanent residents cannot be found, other individuals will be considered. The University of Alberta is committed to an equitable, diverse, and inclusive workforce. We welcome applications from all qualified persons. We encourage women; First Nations, Metis and Inuit persons; members of visible minority groups; persons with disabilities; persons of any sexual orientation or gender identity and expression; and all those who may contribute to the further diversification of ideas and the University to apply.
